

CAREER COACHING PACKAGE

with Greg Bruce

Career Coaching offers a brilliant opportunity to take stock; to reflect on what opportunities may lie ahead and to map out the steps required to achieve your career goals.

However, it can be hard to find a coach who has real experience across multiple industries and who is willing and able to provide honest, direct and practical feedback. Greg Bruce has had an extensive 30 year career in recruitment, HR consulting and general management roles. He blends this wealth of experience with skilful, outcome focused, coaching skills to support your ambitions.

The five, 1 hour, one-on-one coaching sessions are spread over four weeks and can be delivered at a time to suit your schedule.

The Career Coaching Package can be delivered privately for an individual or may form part of an organisational professional development initiative.

Core Content Across the Five Sessions:

- Understanding your current situation
- Clarifying your career ambitions
- Defining your strengths and values
- Targeting the roles and careers that align with your ambitions
- Building and accessing a complementary network
- Resume preparation and presentation
- Interview techniques and practice
- Asking and responding to questions
- Action planning

Who should attend?

Greg has experience with individuals who are early in their careers through to experienced senior executives. Individuals at all levels will benefit from the opportunity to stop, reflect and then execute their plans for the next phase of their career.
