

CONNECT with an extensive, networked community of leaders

Network and develop relationships across all sectors at our exclusive professional development and networking events. Complimentary invitations and special member rates.

Share experiences, knowledge and connections with other members via the complimentary Member Mentor Program. Leverage and grow the leadership capability of the Professional Member community.

Gain significant insights from local, national and internationally recognised leaders and academics at our Annual Leadership Summit and Signature Leadership Events at special member rates.

ACCELERATE your career, celebrate success, gain recognition

Share your achievements at our annual awards ceremonies, such as the AIM WA WestBusiness Pinnacle Awards, or at the New Professional Member and Graduate celebration evenings.

Gain recognition for your experience and qualifications with AIM WA's post-nominals as you advance through your career: AIMM (Member), AFAIM (Associate Fellow), FAIM (Fellow).

Develop your career via our learning pathways and nationally recognised qualifications from Certificate IV to MBA. Programs and assessments at special rates for members.

Exclusive savings via AIM WA Member Rewards. Special discounts and privileges from a wide range of partners throughout Australia.

LEAD from the front and develop your knowledge, skills and expertise

Invest in your management and leadership development with AIM WA's highly interactive training programs at special member rates.

Access the latest in thought leadership via the Business Source Corporate Database, over 6000+e-Books, exclusive Event Resources and Management Essentials Articles, all from credible and respected sources.

Stay informed, inspired and stimulated on the latest management and leadership thinking, locally, nationally and internationally with our quarterly Leader magazine.

Access research papers and participate in research into current topics relevant to our management and leadership community.

INSPIRE and support yourself and others to achieve full potential

A proudly West Australian, member-based, not-for-profit organisation, we build leadership and management capability in Australia and our region. Your membership supports this core purpose and our philanthropic work across the community.

Extend your executive leadership development through our Executive Education programs in partnership with UWA Business School.

Help to shape the offer to members and benefit from sharing ideas and experiences with your peers at one of our Member Networks.

Join our growing community of managers and leaders, now 2,600+ Professional Members strong.
For the most up-to-the minute information and to join, please visit aimwa.com/join or call (08) 9383 8000.